FIRST AIR PILOTS TO CROSS OCEAN HAD MANY THRILLS

British Aviator Is First To Make Full Non-Stop Flight.

PLANE IS COATED WITH ICE DURING PART OF FLIGHT

Wireless Apparatus Fails Soon After Start Is Made Saturday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, June 16.—The Manchester home of John Alcock, pilot of the Vickers Vimy biplane, which on Sunday morning completed its flight across the Atlantic from Newfoundland, by landing at Clifen, Ireland, was besieged by visitors yesterday, the callers standing in line to shake hands with Captain Alcock's mother. She said, during the day:

"I had faith in my son. He told me he would make the flight safely."

Captain Sexton, chief of the United States naval staff in London, commenting on Captain Alcock's flight today, said:

"It was a very fine performance. The United States navy will be only too pleased to extend congratulations."

When the Vickers-Vimy biplane, driven by Captain John Alcock, was first sighted crossing the Irish coast, says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Cliften, Galway, an airplane flew out from the Oranmore airdrome to render assistance. This machine landed near the Vimy but unfortunately was wrecked, owing to the softness of the ground.

When the Vicekrs-Vimy machine landed, Lieutenant Arthur W. Brown, the navigator, said to Captain Alscock: "What do you think of that for fancy navigating?" and the pilot of the machine responded:

"Very good."

The two men who had just completed an epoch-making voyage then shook hands.

When assistance reached the machine the two aviators were helped to the ground and it was found that Lieutenant Brown was slightly injured on the nose and mouth by the jolt given the machine when it struck the ground.

Both men were deaf and dazed and were unable to walk steadily for some minutes.

They quickly recovered, however, and were escorted to the wire station in triumph, being given the best hospitality available. They distributed cigarets as souveniers and gave away the small dog and cat which were mascots during the trip. The entire equipment was rain-soaked by the downpour during the journey.

Describing the trip the aviators said they had a very trying ordeal, Captain Alcock saying that the sun came out only once when the biplane had attained a height of 11,000 feet. Only three astronomical observations were possible during the voyage. The altitude of the machine varied from a few feet from the water up to 13,000 feet, and the fliers never sighted a single ship.

"I did not know once during the night whether I was upsidedown or not," said Captain Alcock. "Once we ascended hurriedly when we saw the green Atlantic only 30 feet below."

The breaking away of the propeller generating current for the wireless apparatus soon after the start prevented the men from communicating with the shore. When it happened, Lieutenant Brown noticed that the propeller had carried away with it one of the stay-wires, but he did not tell Captain Alcock until after they had landed at Clifden.

When Captain Alcock learned of the incident, he said:

"I would have turned back had I known."

Weather conditions were very bad during the trip and Lieutenant Brown had to climb from his seat to clear the ice away from the petrol gauge.

After breakfast today, Lieutenant Brown went to bed while Captain Alcock inspected the machine. The lieutenant, however, was unable to sleep

OHIO SOLONS TO RATIFY SUFFRAGE

Legislature Expected To Act Promptly When It Convenes at 3 O'clock Today.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, June 16.—Ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment was expected to be the first act of the legislature after it convened at 3 o'clock this afternoon to finish up the work of the session. At the governor's office it was stated that the amendment would be transmitted to the legislature as soon as it convened. Only absence of any great number of members would prevent action today, leaders asserted.

Majority Leader Whittmore of the senate stated that the legislature probably will complete its work and recess Wednesday evening until after the November election. He intimated that if the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bills are not taken up before Wednesday they will have to go over until winter.

It was reported at the executive office today that another new emergency financial relief bill for cities and school districts was being drawn by the joint taxation committee and that it might be presented this evening.

The new bill is understood to remove in considerable measure objections made by the governor to former bills. Republican legislative leaders who could be seen today declared however there has been no change in the situation and that so far as they knew an attempt would be made to pass the last relief bill over the governor's veto.

TURKISH WOMEN WEAR PAJAMAS AS STREET ATTIRE

Bucharest, May 29.—Turkish women, many of whom live in villages along the Danube river in Rumania are wearing in the streets with the greatest of pride, American pajamas bearing the label, "gift of the American people." The garments, if worn on the streets of New York would cause a sensation, but the Turkish women here usually wear a form of trousers and the pajamas excite little comment.

GERMANS HURRY TO WEIMAR WITH ALLIED ANSWER

Special Train In Waiting When Reply To Protest Is Presented.

PRINTED COPIES OF REVISED TREATY NOT READY IN TIME

Original With Changes Noted in Red Ink Is Presented.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, June 16. Marshal Foch, General Bliss and other military leaders attending the meeting of the council of five today. The meeting developed the nature of a general "windup" of the German situation.

Paris, June 16.—It is anticipated generally that the Germans will ask for an extension of time in which to reply to the final peace conditions. The request, it is believed will be based on the fact that the Germans were given only one revised copy of the treaty.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, June The reply of the allies to the German counter proposals will be delivered to Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau, head of the enemy peace delegation at Versailles at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Paul Dutast, Secretary of the peace conference, will take the revised treaty personally to Versailles to hand it to the Germans.

A special train is held in readiness at Versailles and it is presumed that the Germans will depart for Weimar immediately upon the receipt of the allies' reply.

Editors and printers worked throughout the night and this afternoon in a feverish effort to complete the reply. At 5 o'clock this morning corrections were still being made but it was stated that the delivery of the document at about 4 o'clock was assured.

The delivery, however, it developed this morning will not be in printed form. It was found that there was not time to complete the printing of the revised document. Therefore Count Von Brockdorf Rantzau will be handed one copy of the original with the changes written in red ink. With this will be handed the German plenipotentiaries 99 other copies of the treaty upon which they can make the corrections themselves from the first.

At this morning's session of the council of four the documents to be handed the Germans were gone over in detail. The session was attended by the revision commission which earlier had completed its work.

The special train which was ordered at Versailles for the Germans was made ready on the request of Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, who signified his intention of leaving as soon as the reply was presented.

MINOR CHANGES NOT ENOUGH, GERMANS SAY

(Associated Press Telegram)

Berlin, Saturday, June 14. A canvass of official quarters qualified to speak for absent government officials this afternoon adduced the blunt, positive statement that unless the revised proposals of the entente nations contain most radical modifications in spirit and in letter, Germany would not sign the peace treaty.

While the postponed delivery of the entente reply was looked upon as a favorable omen, although one dangling from the most slender thread, it may be said tonight that the government, so far as it is still represented in Berlin, is not indulging in the luxury of undue illusions as to what the next 48 hours will bring forth.

Alleged modifications in the draft of the treaty as reported to Berlin through neutral news sources are rejected in official quarters as wholly insufficient to warrant the prediction that the government will be inclined to subject them to closer scrutiny.

Emphasis was also placed on the statement that the cabinet which now is fully represented at Weimar, was absolutely united in its attitude and that there was no prospect of an in

IRISH RESOLUTION IS SENT TO CONFERENCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, June 16.—The resolutions adopted by the American congress on the Irish question have been formally transmitted to the peace conference. Frank P. Walsh and Edward F. Dunne, the delegates representing Irish societies of the United States have been so informed. No information has been given of the character of the letter of transmittal.

U. S. GOVERNMENT MAY ACT.

Washington, June 16. Disquieting dispatches concerning the situation in Costa Rica were received today at the state department. No details were made public but officials said conditions were such that it would not be surprising if the necessity for action by the American government should arise.

A PULL TOGETHER SHOULD BRING THAT $10,000 VICTORY SHAFT TO LICKING COUNTY

Licking county has a splendid chance to secure the $10,000 Victory shaft that will be awarded by the Vermont granite manufacturers to the Ohio county that sells the largest percentage of its War Savings Stamps quota during the months of June, July and August.

Having only "scratched the surface" in this year's stamp sale so far Licking county stands now in eleventh place among the 88 counties in Ohio. The counties ahead of Licking are the smaller communities which by reason of the early absorption of their quotas are not in position to make large gains during the summer months. No one person may own more than 200 stamps of the 1919 issue. Last year's campaign developed the fact that the most populous counties cannot be relied upon for heavy percapita sales because of the character of the population. It seems probable therefore that the prize will go not to one of the large cities, nor to one of the small towns. Energetic effort should result in bringing this splendid prize to Licking county.

If the 700 people who bought 200 stamps lastyear will repeat the performance now; or, not later than August 30, and if the public in general responds to the W. S. S. call, the Victory shaft should come to Licking county.

War Savings Stamps are the best investment in the wide world. They never fall below par, but, on the other hand, grow in value every month. They are tax-free; pay 4.27 per cent interest; cannot be stolen or lost if they are registered, and if one needs the money he can get it all back, plus interest, anytime by giving 10 days' notice. With these facts in mind, how can anybody refuse to buy W. S. S. when in so-doing one without sacrifice, without taking a chance, is helping himself, helping his government, and helping his community to win a great prize?

United effort by the people of this county will put "Old Licking" in a class all by itself. Licking county was first in Ohio in the Boy Scout organization and can be first in W. S. S. if the people so desire.

The women of Newark are continuing their splendid work this week. In two days last week they sold $45,000 worth of W. S. S. They will greatly increase this amount before Thursday night. The women of the country precincts are now organizing for a drive. The women are piling up the stamp sales and are going to make it possible for Licking county to go "over the top" and score a great victory. If you would like to see that $10,000 granite shaft located here get busy, buy all the stamps you can, and urge others to do so, too. We can win the Victory shaft if we go about the job earnestly and stick to the work. All stamp sales and pledges in June will be credited to the women's organization.

INSTALLS BATTERY OF FANS TO MAKE BANQUET HALL COOL FOR BIG DINNER

Chamber of Commerce Committee Assures Cool Room For Guests at Masonic Temple Tonight—Tickets Will Be Sold at Door Tonight.

A big get-together meeting, a reunion of all those interested in business and civic affairs will be held tonight at the Masonic Temple when the Chamber of Commerce dinner is held at 6:15 o'clock. Already four hundred have signified their intention of attending and tickets will be sold at the door.

The dinner is held in connection with the campaign being conducted for an enlarged Chamber of Commerce. An array of out of town speakers has been secured and adjournment is promised for not later than 9 o'clock.

In order to have the banquet hall comfortably cool, a battery of twelve fans was placed early in the day, reducing the temperature and at the dinner they will add to the pleasure of the occasion.

The B. and O. glee club and the Saxaphone quartet will furnish the music. The program will open with musical numbers and the invocation will be given by Rev. Calvin Hazlett. President Herzog of the Chamber of Commerce, and Manager T. J. Appleyard, Jr., will give a short explanation of the enlarged Chamber plan.

Mayor Atherton has been assigned the subject "Now for Newark," and R. N. Begein, federal manager of the western lines of the B. and O. with headquarters in Cincinnati will talk on "The B. and O. Railroad and Its Relations With Newark."

Other speakers will be Thomas A. H. Hay, secretary of the Board of Trade of Easton, Pa., on "Community Progress" and Charles A. Otis, past president of the Chamber of Commerce of Cleveland on "What a Chamber of Commerce Means to Me."

The program will conclude with a talk by C. Harrington Davis, chairman of the enlarged Chamber of Commerce committee.

Many invitations were issued to men of prominence who are in a way identified with Newark interests and many have already signified their intention of attending the dinner.

Among the additional out of town guests will be General Superintendent E. W. Scheer of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Mr. Scheer writes: "As far as I know now I shall be able to attend the Community Progress dinner next Monday evening."

[illegible] of the Ohio Cities Gas company, who [illegible] will be prevented from attending owing to an other engagement writes: "We are interested in a bigger and better Newark."

K. C. Krick, vice president of the Logan Natural Gas and Fuel company promises to attend the next dinner.

Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania railroad has wired President Herzog as follows: "Regret will be impossible for me to attend your dinner on account of important engagement here. I trust that your efforts to secure unified co-operation in Newark may be successful."

The following letter has been received by C. Harrington Davis, chairman of the enlarged chamber committee from Secretary Hay of the Easton Board of Trade who is to speak on "Community Progress," at tonight's dinner:

"I sincerely hope that you have not excited the hopes of your people too great as to my unusual forensic and commercial ability to do things. We have been blended in Easton by the spirit of our men."

Mr. Hay then gives a long list of prominent men, manufacturers, jobbers, bankers and merchants who have taken and are taking a great interest in their organization, and his letter continues:

"You can readily see with an array of names of this character, men who have been willing to give of their time and education in upbuilding our city in a most generous and unselfish manner that it has been an easy thing for a conscientious secretary to make Easton known and we are doing it.

"This week we have just located two additional industries here that will employ 450 people. One a silk industry employing [illegible] men and women and the other an iron foundry which will employ 350 men. One came absolutely through our guarantee fund and we will make them quite a substantial advance and the other came through the advertising Easton has received and is receiving by reason of our having such a large industrial fund. So, I trust that my friends in Newark, will not give me all the credit for the growth of our community because we have a real community spirit here and everybody wants to [illegible]

MOTORCYCLE STRIKES AUTO IN WILLIAMS ST.

George Fox, a mute, with his wife and two children met with an accident last night while returning from Columbus with a motorcycle and side car attachment. They had turned south in Williams street and crashed into an automobile standing along the roadway and which they failed to see. One of the children was quite painfully injured and a gash cut in his face requiring stitches to close. Dr. H. B. Anderson being the attending physician. The occupants of the motorcycle party were badly shaken up but escaped without serious injury. The motorcycle was badly wrecked. The auto was owned by R. F. Kincaide.

WHOLE LICENSE LAW IS REPEALED

Attorney General Declares Prohibition Amendment Knocked Out Entire Statute.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, June 16.—Standing firm on his former opinion, Attorney General John G. Price, before the state supreme court today declared the prohibition amendment to the constitution which went into effect May 27th, repealed the entire liquor license law and that members of the state and county license boards were automatically turned out of office on that date. The argument was made on behalf of State Auditor Donahay in refusing to pay salaries of license commissioners after May 27, in the suit brought by the state license board to compel payment.

James I. Boulger, representing the license board, admitted that the function of the board to issue licenses ceased and that penal provisions of the law were annulled by the prohibition amendment. He declared however, that the board still had functions to perform in collection of Dow-Aikin taxes and that it remained in existence to perform this function. Because of the increased number of illegal sales, Boulger said the duties of the board in collecting these taxes had been greatly increased.

Attorney Boulger also argued that the state license board could remain in office for 90 days to wind up its work. This contention was disputed by C. R. Bell of the attorney general's office, who declared that the winding up of affairs of the office depended upon the members of the board in a personal capacity and not in an official one.

It is expected that the court will render a decision within a day or two. It is understood that Crabbe prohibition enforcement bills will not come up for action in the legislature until later.

It is probable that the legislature will go in a body to Camp Sherman tomorrow at the invitation of General E. F. Glenn, camp commander. Arrangements for the trip were being made by Senate Clerk W. E. Halley.

STATE OFFICER SPEAKS AT I. O. O. F. MEMORIAL

Newark Odd Fellows Sunday observed the annual memorial day with appropriate ceremonies at Cedar Hill cemetery. A parade under the direction of Henry Siegel preceded the ceremony at the cemetery and the Buckeye band furnished the music. Members of Mt. Olive encampment, in full dress uniform headed the procession. At the cemetery, the memorial address was delivered by Deputy Grand Master R. D. Chaffin. Charles L. Flory was in charge of the program. All the ladies affiliated with the two I. O. O. F. lodges here participated.

GASOLINE TANK BLOWS UP; AKRON MAN DEAD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Akron, June 16.—One man was killed and seven seriously injured in explosion and fire in the city garbage disposal plant shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. The dead man is James Ballinger, buried in the wreckage. His body has not been recovered.

A 2,000 gallon gasoline tank exploded from a short circuit in the electric wiring. A portion of the building was totally destroyed.

City officials could not estimate the loss which is believed to be close to $15,000. The plant was valued at $100,000.

Service Director Howard Morse and Superintendent D. R. Thomas of the garbage disposal plant probably escaped death. They were at the time of the explosion and two minutes later would have been touring the plant in the vicinity of the big gasoline tank.

MEDICOS SAY BEER IS NEEDED IN SOME CASES

New York, June 16.—The Allied Medical association of America comprising all the various schools of medicine in the country, today adopted a resolution at its convention here declaring that properly brewed lager beer was absolutely essential to the American in certain cases, in favoring the manufacture of beer containing not to exceed 2 3-4 per cent of alcohol. Light wine, if pure, was endorsed as beneficial in certain medical cases.

BURLESON ORDER PREVENTS STRIKE OF PHONE HELPERS

Postmaster General Will Call Conference of Officials and Union.

PACIFIC COAST LINEMEN WALKED OUT MONDAY

All Employes In Department Are Affected By Order.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, June 16.—Both sides in the strike of telegraphers today awaited amplification of the statement made at Atlantic City last night by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, that Postmaster General Burleson had promised to issue orders which would result in conference between officials of the telegraph companies and the union.

"I am glad to hear that," said S. J. Konenkamp, president of the Commercial operators union when told of the proposed conference. "I am trying to learn something about it."

The proposed strike of electrical workers set for today in which some 130,000 persons were to be involved did not take place, having been called off after Postmaster General Burleson granted their demands for collective bargaining and adjustment of wage scale.

Electrical workers on the Pacific coast, however, intend to walk out today despite the order calling off the strike, according to Fred Spencer, member of the executive board of local 370 at Los Angeles.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Los Angeles, June 16.—Linemen and switchboard men, members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, left their work in the plants of the Southern California Telephone today at eight o'clock, according to their officials. Telephone company officials declined to discuss the situation until they had completed a list of the remaining force.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Atlantic City, June 16.—Postmaster General Burleson's order granting the right of collective bargaining to electrical and telephone workers, signing of which on Saturday averted a nation wide strike, applies to all other employes under the postoffice department, including telegraph operators and postal employes, according to a report made today to the convention of the American Federation of Labor by P. H. McCarty of San Francisco, chairman of the committee that went to Washington under direction of the convention.

MORE OHIO SOLDIERS GET FRENCH MEDALS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, June 16.—The war department today announced the names of a number of additional soldiers of the 37th division (Ohio National Guard) who have been awarded the French Croix de Guerre for exceptional bravery and distinguished service, according to a special telegram received today by Columbus Dispatch. Among those receiving the award were:

Captain Dudley T. Dawson, Columbus; Lieutenant Colonel William C. Gill, Cincinnati; Sergeant Russell Craigmiles, Portsmouth; Sergeant Major James J. Davis, Cincinnati; Private Frank Dizeske, Cleveland, Corporal Sam Manal, Toledo; Private Leonard Schifler, Cleveland, Private Jacob F. Snyder, East Liverpool; Private Harold R. Class Is Graduated With Appropriate Exercises on Sunday Night — Father Schrader Speaks.

Impressive services marked the presentation of diplomas to the class of 13 graduates from St. Francis de Sales High school at St. Francis de Sales church on Sunday evening.

The graduation exercises were held at 7 o'clock and the class marched to their places in the front pews which had been reserved for them. The young women wore charming white lingerie frocks, with white hats and carried bouquets. This high altar was banked with pink and white roses and lighted with many candles.

Rev. Father Schroeder, assistant pastor, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. He told of what the school life in the whole had meant to the children how it was but a preparatory school for life. In school they were taught the theories that must be worked out in practical every day life and how well equipped they were to meet the problems which would confront them.

"With tonight's exercises, you are but at the threshold of life. At its very beginning," said the speaker. He cautioned them as to their conduct and to ask them to carry throughout life the ideals taught them in the school.

Following the address of Father Schroeder, Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan, pastor and superintendent of the schools, gave an intimate little talk to the class. He told them he was proud of them and that their school life and their associations had left the warmest and kindliest feeling. "I am going to miss you," he said, "more than you will ever know."

Father O'Boylan asked the class not to let the fact of their graduation and completion of the school's work, be an occasion for separation of the class and the school associates. He asked them to return to the school from time to time and to take an interest in the school activities.

Father O'Boylan then presented the diplomas to the class. The members to be graduated this year from the High school were: Martha Friel, Anna Rodgers, Clarabell Johns, Viola Stoepler, Leo Reichert Harry Myer Charles McGonagle and Thomas Sullivan. From the commercial school, Lillian Ruff, Lillian Braun, Naomi Nold, Mary Stasel and Otto Odendahl.

Charles McGonagle, had the highest class average, receiving the class honors.

At the conclusion of the presentation of the diplomas Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was held. The members of the choir furnished a delightfully arranged program for the occasion.

FIRST AIR PILOTS

and soon got up. By noon both were looking perfectly well and willingly distributed autographs to admirers. Captain Alcock wanted to fly to England in a borrowed plane but his companion observed:

"I have had enough flying for a bit."

Captain Alcock exhibited a bunch of rainsoaked letters which he had been asked to mail if the flight was successful, saying:

"I am the first trans-Atlantic postman."

The two aviators said they were only once in real danger, when the machine went into a flat spin, owing to the pilot being unable to tell how the machine was moving. Lieutenant Brown noticing that the compass needle was swinging from side to side—the first indication that something was wrong—managed to get Captain Alcock to understand the difficulty.

The machine traveled at a rate of 140 miles an hour at times and the pilot once found himself diving straight toward the surface of the ocean. He was so near the water that he had to "snatch" the machine from its dive so quickly that it almost looped-the-loop. He says the machine would have crumbled up had it touched the water plane NC 4. To this Alcock replied:

The biplane is being guarded by soldiers and it is probable it will be necessary to dismantle it.

BRITISH PLOT DOESN'T BRAG ABOUT SUCCESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Galway, Ireland, June 15.——The correspondent endeavored to get Alcock to describe the impressions he had during the flight while the aviators was at Clifden.

"It is difficult to sum them up," said Alcock. "It is curious to be able to say that I had no sense of remoteness. I have done considerable night-flying and any sense of loneliness has worn off long ago. I do not think that either of us had any thought of what we were flying over, being merely intent of getting across.

"We wanted to get the job done and I can tell you that we were jolly well pleased when we saw the coast.

"I believe the great secret of long distance flying under such conditions as we experienced is to nurse your engine," he continued. "I never opened the throttle once. The machine itself has a speed of 90 miles an hour, but without opening the throttle and with a following wind we averaged 120."

Emphasizing the bodily comfort of the passage, Captain Alcock said:

I wore electrically heated clothes as an experiment, but the machine itself was so snug that it was unnecessary to switch on the current."

The correspondent asked Alcock whether he regarded his flight as having beaten that of the American sea at the speed it was then traveling.

"I could not say anything but what is good for the Americans. I have been treated very kindly by the Americans since I have been over there." (Meaning in Newfoundland)

JUAREZ BATTLE

Cox and after reading General Erwin's letter, General Gonzales announced he would remain at Fort Hidalgo and asked permission to go to different parts of the town now under control of the American troops. He also asked that his officers and men who had been temporarily detained at the United States immigration station be released.

United States infantry troops started withdrawing from Juarez to El Paso at 10:30 o'clock this morning in obedience to orders by Major General Derosey C. Cabell, commander of the southern department, who arrived from San Antonio early today, and crossed the international bridge to confer with the supreme commander of the Juarez troops.

"This is a matter for my superior officers and for my president to consider," General Gonzales said at Fort Hildago.

"I am not in a position to impose my own views upon the situation, although I did not and do not yet think the crossing of the American forces was necessary for the defeat of the Villa forces as my forces defended the town most bravely."

At the fort it was announced that the 70 Villa prisoners had been taken south with General Gonzales' column and that eight of the officers of Villa's command made prisoners had been executed. It was also stated by Major Hernandez that the body of Manuel Castro, a Villa general, had been found in the trenches east of town.

The number of Villa rebels were killed in the battle was placed at 200 by the federals, while 70 were wounded, they said. They said they had no estimate of their own loss.

American troops, mostly 24th infantrymen, guard the approaches to the international bridge today while Mexican soldiers stand guard at the Mexican end of the bridge. The Chinese and Mexican refugees who were detained at the United States immigration station during the night, were released and permitted to return to Juarez where everything was quiet. Customs inspection was suspended at the Mexican end of the bridge.

One American officer in command of a colored infantry company, told of his experience during the fighting with the rebels last night. He said one band of rebels held up their hands in token of surrender, then opened fire on the Americans at close range. All the rebel band were killed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

El Paso, Texas, June 16. American troops sent into Mexico last night to stop the indiscrimnate firing across the border fought their first general engagement with the Mexican rebel forces of Francisco Villa at the Juarez race track shortly after 2 o'clock this morning and the Americans were victorious. Villa's troops were driven from the race track by rifle and machine gun fire and many prisoners were reported taken by the United States cavalry which took up positions on the east and southeast of the track, according to an official report at military headquarters.

The Mexican rebels and federal troops fought in the street of Juarez Saturday night and Sunday night, many on both sides being killed.

Many bullets from the rebel guns came across the Rio Grande and two persons were killed and seven wounded on the American side.

When the Mexican bullets became too thick for the safety of citizens of El Paso, Brigadier General J. B. Erwin at 11 o'clock last night ordered American troops to cross the border and in ten minutes after the order was issued 3,600 United States soldiers were in Mexico.

The first troops to cross the border were the fourth battalion of the 24th infantry (colored) a battalion of the 82nd artillery and the fifth and seventh cavalry. After the Mexican federals were allowed to retire into the town of Juarez, Colonel Hadsell's colored infantry opened up with a terrific rife fire on the trenches flanking the race track. They advanced in open order and succeeded in dislodging the Villa forces who held the strongest positions as the colored troops were forced to advance across comparatively open plain.

The first volley from the riflemen were answered, shot for shot, by the Villa troops who seemed to realize they were trapped by the cavalry in the rear and the infantry in front.

American machine guns started sputtering from adobe houses near the race track and the preponderance of rifle fire was soon with the American force. The preliminary artillery preparation having been completed, the shrapnel guns became silent as the rifles took up the work. The explosion of Mauser and American cartridges could be plainly distinguished from military headquarters in the building in El Paso where General Erwin was an interested spectator from his tenth story window.

As the American cavalry maneuvered on the Juarez plain their positions were marked by green rocket flares and were answered by similar star shells from the top of the Mills building. At 2:30 o'clock the rifle firing had died down, indicating that Villa forces were defeated and were being driven into the hills or pursued by the United States cavalry.

The American artillery was stationed in positions from which the Juarez race track, where the Villa rebels were quartered, could be shelled with shrapnel. Flinking movements were begun in an effort to prevent an escape of the rebels. In announcing his action in ordering Americans into Mexico, Brigadier General Erwin in a formal statement said he had done so to prevent the indiscriminate firing into El Paso by rebel soldiers, endangering the lives of Americans.

"But on no account were they to undertake an invasion into Mexico," continued the statement. "As soon as the Villistas have been dispersed and the safety of the citizens of El Paso has been assured, then the troops of my command will be withdrawn to the American side of the border.

Major General Derosey Cabell, commander of the southern department of the army, is expected to arrive here today from San Antonio.

An American soldier shot and killed a Mexican who fired on him from the top of an adobe house at the intersection of Ninth and Stanton streets this morning. Orders have been given for the American soldiers to shoot all snipers. A woman and another Mexican, who were on the roof with the sniper were captured.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Newark drive for the Enlarged Chamber of Commerce opens with a large meeting in Masonic temple this evening. Well laid plans have been made and the public has been prepared for the campaign through a series of well written page announcements in the newspapers.

A well organized, efficient Chamber of Commerce is a vital necessity. The commercial organization should have a large membership and adequate funds with which to operate. Newark owes its growth to the Chamber of Commerce and its predecessor the Board of Trade. The future development of the city lies in large measures with the support given to the Chamber of Commerce. All together now for Newark.

INSPIRATION OF TEACHERS.

People who have done great things in the world commonly owe the inspiration of them to some school teacher. In some obscure class room, there was some inspiring woman or man who fired the youngster's heart with an ambitious hope.

Back 20 years ago, Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read, who has just directed the first air flight across the Atlantic ocean, was a grammar school pupil in the obscure little hamlet of Hanson, Mass. He had as a teacher a woman who often talked to the boys of the effort to reach the North Pole, then conspicious in the public eye, as the kind of goal on which a man might well set his heart. She urged her boys to aim for big things, and encouraged them to believe they could attain them. She planted the seed of ambition, and the fruitage now appears. Men like Read comonly owe much to stimulating teachers, most of them obscure, who helped them form the purpose of achievement. Following Read's accomplishment we read today of the first non-stop flight across the Atlantic made by Alcock and Brown.

At the school graduation exercises the same suggestion occurs.

The trip was made in 16 hours and 12 minutes—a wonderful record.

The pupils who make the most brilliant success, were frequently quite unpromising at an earlier period. But some thoughtful and stimulating teacher spurred them on to action and achievement.

Some one was saying the other day that the prevailing type of college professor has changed during recent years. Formerly the colleges used to seek first for men with power to inspire pupils and to fill them with zeal for achievement. Nowadays, he said, there is a great demand for young men who are doctors of philosophy and who have records for great research work and erudition in their specialty and who know everything about that study, but who have no special gift for inspiring their pupils.

In so far as that idea prevails in colleges and schools a great deal will be lost. Inspiration is the first element in good teaching. The facts the pupils will soon be forgotten. The inspiration lives forever.

NOT SO FRIENDLY NOW.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

For some months after the American troops entered Germany there was much loose talk to the effect that the doughboys liked the Germans better than they liked the French or British. The Americans went into a German region that had been untouched by war. They found it clean and well organized, a violent contrast to the regions of France that had suffered during four years of war. They found the Germans affable and deprecatory, and they wrote home nice things about the Germans while insisting that the French were dirty and unpleasant. It was a rather alarming manifestation of American gullibleness.

Now the doughboys are being awakened. The Germans in the occupied areas see that nothing more is to be gained by fawning on the Yankees. They have been told that there is dissension at Paris and that the Americans are unpopular there. They have been told that Americans back home do not uphold the President's course. They have, therefore, suddenly become arrogant, provocative and altogether nasty. In brief, they have thrown aside the disguise which they wore while they believed it might be profitable.

American soldiers are jostled and insulted on the streets of Coblenz. When the German rowdies are in sufficiently large numbers they assault and even kill the unarmed Americans. The Yanks are no longer treated as friends and good fellows, but as hatred enemies.

Many American boys who have been fooled by the German pose have recently been disillusioned. The Americans in the Coblenz region will be glad to begin the march to Berlin whenever Foch gives the order.

Very likely the recent manifestations of the Germanism will go far to offset the unconscious and unmalicious propaganda of returned soldiers who have spoken well of the Germans and not very well of the French. The doughboys who have recently seen Germanism undisguised will have little patience with those who continue to spread the propaganda.

LICKING COUNTY BOARD VISITS INDUSTRIAL FARM

The entire board of county visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Orr, superintendent and matron of the Children's Home, visited the Boy's' Industrial school Thursday.

At present there are 1256 boys there, only five of whom are from Licking county which the superintendent said spoke well for the county. The boys are kept busy farming, attending grade schools and in the various shops.

The dairy consists of 60 milch cows, and 60 calves and dry cows. Four hundred pounds of butter are made each week.

There are 334 Belgian hares, old and young; 900 laying hens producing 30 dozen eggs per day, 800 young chickens coming off Thursday.

The officers and boys consume seven barrels of flour daily. Forty acres of promising wheat and 40 acres on an outside form of which the institute will get one-half, making 60 acres all told. The 50 acres of growing potatoes and 45 acres of corn as well as the garden truck, all look well.

In a large glass house 35 feet by 200 feet which is kept warm and moist for early vegetables is found tomato vines growing eight feet high with many branches loaded with fruit. New tomatoes, peas and berries are now served on the tables.

The flu showed its sinister hand at the school. Out of 800 cases, death claimed 16 boys and three officers, including Field Officer Van Niman of Shreve, well known in Newark.

WIFE KICKS ON KEG HUBBY HAS IN CELLAR

A telephone call was received from a woman in James street yesterday stating that her husband had a ten gallon cask of liquor at home and she wanted the police department to confiscate it. The patrol was sent to the place and the liquor brought to the patrol station. It will be returned today as the man was within his rights in storing away for the long dry spell. He will be warned that he had better treat it lightly and not abuse his wife if he takes on an over supply.

LOTS OF HIKE BUT NO FISH FOR Y. M. C. A. BOYS

The first official "fishin' hike" of the summer was attended by eighteen boys Saturday. Under the leadership of two of the Y. M. C. A. force the expedition went forth with much hope and bait, and returned in the afternoon full of the same hope but minus the fish. If there ever were any fish in Lee Pond Run, they were still there according to Gypsey the boys' fisherman. Wayne Garrison caught the longest fish and Forrest Roberts the greatest number but the fish were all so small they were given a chance to grow for next summer's sport. The boys are planning an overnight hike next week, details of which will be announced later.

ENCOURAGED BY RESULTS, NEWARK WOMEN CONTINUE CAMPAIGN FOR SALE OF WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Encouraged by the splendid results of their effort on Thursday and Friday when W. S. S. pledges amounting to $45,000 were signed, the women comprising the War Savings Stamp organization of the city resumed work this morning determined to prove conclusively that they can "do things" just as well as the men.

The women's organization smaller in number than that of the men during the Liberty loan drives has a disadvantage but this disadvantage is overcome by the women's enthusiasm. Mrs. Ernest T. Johnson, county chairman of the women's division, is today sending letters to 100 women who are not among the solicitors asking them to go out among their friends and obtain a half dozen pledges. If each of the 100 women to whom the appeal is sent will give just two or three hours to the work it will add thousands of dollars to the stamp fund.

Mrs. James R. Fitzgibbon, head of the special committee on music, is arranging to send a decorated truck over the city beginning tonight or possibly tomorrow evening. The truck will carry a piano and musicians, a three minute speaker and others who will accept W. S. S. pledges. This truck is to be used every evening during the week and is to visit all parts of the city.

Rev. Geo. Bohon Schmitt gave a splendid four minute talk on W. S. S. at the Auditorium Saturday night before a crowded house. He urged the people to rally to the women's call and help bring to the county the Victory shaft.

Attorney E. S. Randolph just home from France made a strong appeal for W. S. S. support at the Auditorium last night.

The Ohio county selling the largest percentage of its quota of W. S. S. in June July and August will be given a $10,000 granite memorial shaft. Hearty support of the Women's W. S. S. drive will start the Victory Shaft in the direction.

Those who pledge to buy 100 stamps are privileged to form a Bring 'Em Back club in honor of a soldier or sailor. Those who buy the limit 200 W. S. S. may organize two clubs. Give the names of the soldiers whom you wish to honor to the solicitor as you sign the pledge card.

If those who bought 200 W. S. S. last year will repeat the performance now Licking county will go over the top in a hurry and thereby clinch that $10,000 prize.

Solicitors are urged to request people to buy all of the stamps they can before Sept. 1, the date the Victory Shaft contest closes.

Every Newark bank has just bought 200 W. S. S. to hold as part of the bank's assets. They did the same thing last year. If W. S. S. are good enough for a bank to buy and there's nothing better they could buy they are good enough for the public. Every Newark bank now owns as many War Savings Stamps as the law will permit them to own. A good investment? Certainly. Buy W. S. S. now.

Some people may not know the meaning of S. O. S. but everybody knows the meaning and also the value of W. S. S.

Mrs. S. R. Henderson, Fourth ward, in her canvass Saturday found a widow, the mother of five dependent children, who does washing in the morning, works in a factory in the afternoon and irons at night. The woman offered to pledge 10 per cent of her weekly earnings but Mrs. Henderson rightly declined to accept the pledge. Mrs. Henderson is now arranging a post card with which to send this woman on a little vacation to a neighboring town.

The Newton township leader is Mrs. M. C. Price who is hard at work perfecting her organization of Newton township women.

The women's drive in Licking township will be under the joint leadership of Mrs. T. C. Jury and Mrs. Stattler. Mrs. Jury's husband was prominent in the Licking county War Work organization being chairman of his township and will of course give Mrs. Jury the benefit of his experience in organization and direction of the work. There is no doubt about the role Licking township will play.

The first woman in Licking county to accept a township chairmanship is Mrs. Hubbard of Alexandria. Mrs. Hubbard will receive the hearty support of Postmaster Whitehead, the Alexandria bank, the War Work chairman of McKean township, Mr. Smith and of all the people of Alexandria and the surrounding territory.

Mrs. Fred S. Wright in speaking at a meeting of the women's organization, said that the Newark women who had had no part in the several Liberty loan drives, welcomed the privilege of helping the W. S. S. campaign.

Through the purchase of 100 War Savings Stamps today, the stamps being credited to the women's dive, a Bring 'Em Back club has been formed in honor of Walter Lee Harris, 57 Summit street. Mr. Harris is in the navy.

Mrs. Burton Case is getting the Granville organization in line for the W. S. S. campaign. Granville had the distinction of making a national record in W. S. S. last year. Everybody in that territory knows that the World's best investment is W. S. S. and there's no trouble to sell stamps in Granville. So look out for Granville's showing in the women's drive.

No matter what is done or who does it there are those who criticise and the W. S. S. work is no exception. Among some people there is a story afloat that the War Chest money is being used to pay for workers' dinners. The fact is the dinners given the workers in the Liberty loan campaign were paid for out of a special fund contributed by Newark and Licking county people for that very purpose. So far as the War Stamp campaign is concerned, a fund of $800 was raised by Col. W. C. Wells and one or two others from private subscriptions to pay for incidental expenses of the organization. This money did not come from the War Chest, though the War Chest committee very properly made an appropriation for advertising and other expenses of the campaign. The newspapers, however, while giving their minimum rate on all advertising of this sort have not charged for more than half of the space devoted to this work. Another report is that the chairman of the W. S. S. committee is paid. He receives no pay whatever from any source. It is inconceivable to some people that anybody can do any work without being paid for it.

SONG OF "THE STAMP."

(By Mrs. S. R. Henderson)

Once, twice, thrice,
The women the streets did tramp,
And always as they passed along
They sang the song of "THE STAMP."

Walk, walk, walk,
With feet that were weary and sore,
On they went from house to house
Though it seemed they'd sell no more.

Pledge, pledge, pledge,
Because we've nothing to sell,
You know all about W. S. S.,
The investment pays you well.

Yes, yes, yes,
We know you've given a lot,
But so has the Jackie
And so has the Yank.
Just how many Stamps have you bought?

Try, try, try,
The widow will give her all,
But some men of wealth,
Who have strength and health
Are like an adamant wall.

Talk, talk, talk,
I fear we shall all go daft,
But never [illegible] until after July
We must have that marble shaft.

STAMPS, STAMPS, STAMPS,
The Government's promise to pay
Pledge now while its hot
Help us "over the top"
Prepare for that rainy day.

is the feeling and plaint of women who are "run-down" so low that work drags, head aches, back aches, dragging down feelings, dizzy, pale and weak, little things annoy and "everything goes wrong."

Look the other way just a minute and see what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for more than a million women in the last fifty years.

What it has done for others it can do for you.

A helping hand to lift up weak, tired, over-taxed women—that's what you'll find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives you just the help that you need. To be had in liquid or tablets. Tablet form, 60 cents, at all drug stores.

It is a medicine that's made especially to build up women's strength and to cure women's ailments—an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nervine; purely vegetable, non-alcoholic, and perfectly harmless.

Defiance, Ohio—"For some time I suffered with woman's weakness which caused me to become all run-down. I was so weak I could scarcely get around and was extremely nervous. I was completely down and out when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it not only built me up in health and strength but so completely cured me of my feminine trouble that I have never been bothered since. I consider it the very best medicine a woman can take."—Mrs. F. Morse, 103 Summit St.

An Extra Large Bottle of Famo for One Dollar

For a dollar you can buy at any toilet goods counter a full 12-ounce bottle of Famo.

Many hair tonics charge more for a bottle that is one-third smaller.

This means that you can use Famo every day for little more than half of what it would cost for some preparations.

And Famo actually does what no other hair treatment will do.

It attacks Seborrhea, the cause of dandruff, and stops the seborrhean flow that causes the dandruff scale.

Famo ends falling hair and itching scalp. It makes the head as sweet and clean as a baby's.

Famo contains no alcohol to cause scalp and hair dryness. It postpones grayness by making and keeping the hair healthy.

The regular daily use of Famo makes the hair soft and luxuriant and gives it a beautiful gloss and sheen.

Every one in the family should use Famo every day.

Sold at all toilet goods counters in two sizes 35 cents and $1.

Seborrhea is a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrhean excretion forms in scales and flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

Rain Misses Newark

Newark surely has been in the dry zone for the past week for the surrounding vicinity has been blessed with copious showers while the city has been given the go-by. Sunday afternoon a heavy rain fell at Twenty-first street and it poured down at the Country club. A few miles south of the city the rain fell in torrents and in the neighborhood of Linnville corn fields were entirely covered. There is much wheat down also over the entire county, but some of it is gradually raising so that it can be cut. Very little rain fell in Newark Sunday afternoon and Monday morning.

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate)

Granville, June 16.—The home of Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Livingston in Plum street, was the scene on Saturday morning of a beautiful home wedding, when Miss Betty Bonham of Piqua, the sister of Mrs. Livingston was married to Mr. Daniel W. Reck of Philadelphia, Pa. The rooms were profusely decorated throughout and the mantle banked in pink roses and masses of green formed an affective back ground for the bridal party. Rev. C. L. Williams, D., D., professor of English in Denison University officiated, reading the ring services. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white georgette crepe and carrying a bouquet of white roses and pink sweet peas. Following the ceremony and the congratulations, a three course breakfast was served in the dining room, where at a table decorated in pink roses, covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Reck, the bride and groom, Dr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. George Alvin Bonham of Piqua, brother of the bride, and Prof. and Mrs. Livingston.

The death recently of Miss Bonham's parents precluded the thought of a large wedding. Mr. Rick is an electrician with the Westinghouse company of Philadelphia in which city the couple expect to make their future home. They left on an afternoon train for Geneva on the Lakes and will finish their months wedding tour in Atlantic city. The bride's going away gown was of dark blue relieved by the gray of hat, gloves and boots.

Great interest is being manifested in the work of the community federation of women whose latest project is the proper equipping of the community club rooms for local women and a comfort station for out of town women to be always available. The meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 is expected to call out a large attendance. Mrs. C. B. Slack will present her plans for having the rooms ready for the big Fourth of July celebration.

Burton Case whose peach orchards on North street suffered heavily during the killing frosts this spring, expects to salvage some 50 bushels of an early variety out of the possible six or seven thousand which blossom time promised.

A thunder shower Sunday afternoon has somewhot cleared the air, as well as laid the dust in this vicinity. Recent storms have played queer havoc with local wheat fields in several instances laying low half a field leaving the other half standing.

Mrs. C. J. Seasholes of Salem, who has been visiting at the home of her brother and sister Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ullman during the past two weeks will leave Tuesday morning, accompanied by her daughters Miss Margaret a student in Denison and little Miss Grace aged eight.

Paul Pendleton spent the week end in Granville on furlough from military duty in Camp Sherman.

Mrs. B. I. Jones entertained at dinner Sunday, the honor guests being Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Lindsay of Columbus. Covers were laid for the honor guests, their two little daughters, Jane and Ann, Mr .and Mrs. E. J .Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Grove B. Jones and Mrs. Belle Grove Wright.

Grove B. Jones, who is engaged in work for the government and has spent the past fortnight with Mrs. Jones and their infant daughter at the home of their mother, Mrs. B. I. Jones. He expects to leave Tuesday morning to resume his duties.

Mrs. Ernest Shepardson left this morning to attend the state convention of the Daughters of Veterans at Lima, from Tuesday until Friday. She will sing at the memorial service on Thursday. The convention includes all the state organizations of both Daughters and Sons of Veterans.

Dainty Ann Pennington will be seen tonight in the opera house as "Sunshine Nan," based on a popular story by Anne Hegan Rice—one of the most charming roles of her repertoire.

Harry Bawden ,younger son of Mrs. Susan Bawden, left this morning for Tiffin to engage in business for the summer.

GERMANS HURRY

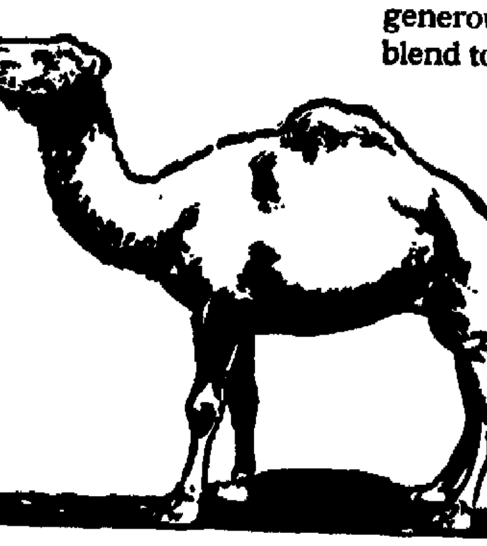
ternal division which might break up the present government and produce a new ministry

Later reports are that Mathias Erzberger, chairman of the German armistice commission, was willing to take over the job of concluding peace. It was also pointed out that the peace commission of the national assembly which took an active part in the formation of the German counter proposals was solidly backing up the cabinet in its determination in refusing to sign any pact not representing the greatest possible divergence from the original proposals

In view of this alleged solidarity political onlooker here are unable to figure how Erzberger can possibly create an unexpectedly new situation. Erzberger has been brushing aside these rumors disposing of them by referring to the fact that the present coalition government is not only intact but holds an undisputed mandate from the German people and from the national assembly which is thoroughly representative of the people's will

On the other hand he has not as yet made an unequivocal denial of the rumor that he is contemplating quitting the cabinet, nor has he definitely declared that he is in complete harmony with the cabinet's peace policies.



Camel Cigarettes

They Win You On Quality!

18 cents a package

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

Your enjoyment of Camels will be very great because their refreshing flavor and fragrance and mellowness is so enticingly different. You never tasted such a cigarette! Bite is eliminated and there is a cheerful absence of any unpleasant cigaretty after-taste or any unpleasant cigaretty odor!

Camels are made of an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos and are smooth and mild, but have that desirable full-body and certainly hand out satisfaction in generous measure. You will prefer this Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

Give Camels the stiffest tryout, then compare them with any cigarette in the world at any price for quality, flavor, satisfaction. No matter how liberally you smoke Camels they will not tire your taste!

PROFESSIONAL IS BARRED TO GIVE AMATEUR BIKE RIDERS A CHANCE

Columbus Rider Cops Three Prizes Before Rule Is Made. Good Sized Crowd Sees Gas Bikes In Speed Contests At Moundbuilders Park Sunday.

E. E. Davis, professional motor cycle rider from Columbus, riding a specially built racing machine from the Hendee Mfg. Co., Springfield, Mass., copped first place in all but one event at Moundbuilders Park Sunday afternoon. He didn't win that one event because he was barred from participation by race officials. He was the only professional rider entered. Among the amateurs, Devine of Newark and Greiner of Zanesville captured most of the seconds,, Greiner taking first place in the event in which Davis was barred.

Quite a good sized crowd was preent, many from surrounding cities, Columbus and Zanesville.

The sport was fast and exciting and the crowd was pleased with the four events on the progrom, a two, five and two ten mile races, and an extra attraction being a three mile side car race. John Mullin, well known amusement promoter and concession man acting as the starting judge and track manager, getting the riders away in good shape, his work being highly complimented by the participants. Bally Myers acted as official timekeeper and scoring judge. There were several spills during the races but no one was seriously injured.

The first race was a two mile event and was won by E. E. Davis, a professional rider from Columbus. Devine of this city finishing second and Greiner of Zanesville third. The latter received a spill on one of the turns and bruised his right knee. After it was patched up he continued and finished the race. Time, 2:15.

The second race was a five mile affair and was also won by Davis, who had a specially built racing machine that could take the turns better than the others in the race. Devine had a bad spill but was game and finished with the other riders. Greiner was second and the local man, Devine, finished in third place. Time, 610.

The racing officials then decided to handicap Davis in the ten mile event, and they gave the other riders a half mile start and the Capital City boy turned on the juice and made one of the greatest rides possibly ever witnessed on a half mile track. He made spurt after spurt and before five miles was recorded had gained the lap and passed the others, finishing first and winning the purse. Time 12 minutes.

Then came a race with side cars, the distance being three miles, six starters and it also was won by Davis, the time being 5 minutes.

The last event was to have been a twenty mile affair but the riders asked that it be made ten instead and this was done, Davis was barred and Greiner of Zanesville finished first and won the purse, the time being 12:30. There were two spills and the riders managed to throw themselves and were not injured. There was an ambulance in the quarter stretch but its services were not needed.

The races furnished excellent amusement and there is talk of bringing a state meet to this city in the very near future, in fact the riders have asked for it. There were several hundred machines at the track and when many of the riders, who are amateur racers, learned that Davis had entered they failed to start. In the future there will be two classes, amateurs and professionals.

Vacation Days Are Strenuous Days For the Youngsters

"Jumping Jupiter, how they do go through shoes!" Well, let 'em. It's worth it. Just dress them in "any old thing" and let 'em go it. Don't worry about shoes, either. Who wants hot, heavy shoes in the summer time?

Slip their feet in the cool, comfortable Sandal Oxfords and Canvas Footwear we are offering and turn them loose. The prices are mighty small and they possess real wear. Beats going barefoot a mile, unless stubbed toes and stone bruises have more attractions than memory brings to mind. Thistles, too. Wow!

Pa and Ma are more sedate. But [illegible] they want to cultivate corns and bunions they'll take a lesson from the [illegible] and surround their understanding with solid comfort too. You'll find plenty of styles all of them good.

Store Open all Day Thursdays in June.

Wall Street.

New York, June 16.—The one noteworthy incident at the regular opening of today's stock market was a reaction of 1-4 point in United States steel which was among the few strong features of last Saturday's session. Otherwise changes were limited mostly to fractions, rails showing a lower trend with such industrials as United States rubber and leather issues. Before the end of the first half hour the reversal became more general due mainly to free offerings of oils and related speculative shares.

Monentary conditions were again the overshadowing factor of the forenoon, last week's deficit of actual reserves by clearing house banks causing further apprehension. Call money opened at 10 per cent, the same rate as last week's final quotations, and trading diminished to moderate proportions. The setback in prices was most pronounced among Motors, Oils, Steels, Coppers and Affiliated Equipments where recessions ranged from 1 to 7 points. Several specialties made slight gains but liquidation gathered fresh force at noon.

Cincinnati Live Stock.

Cincinnati, June 16.—Hogs: receipts 7,500; strong; selected heavy shippers 21.25; good to choice packers and butchers 21.25; medium, 21.00@21.p5.

Chicago Produce.

Chicago, June 16.—Potato arrival 94 cars. Old weak northern white U. S. number one car lots $1.40@$1.65 per Cwt. New steady Bliss triumphs $3.50 @ $4.50 per cwt.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, June 16.—Bullish sentiment continued today to rule the corn market. Commission houses were the chief buyers, largely on country account. Opening quotations on corn, which ranged from 1-2 cent to 1 3-4 cents higher with July $1.74 to $1.74 1-2 and September $1.67 1-4 to $1.68 1-8 were followed by material further gains.

Oats shared in the upturn of corn. After opening half to 1 cent higher, including July at 69 3-4c the market continued to ascend.

Provisions gave way under realizing sales. At first, however, there was a temporary bulge in sympathy with the advance of grain and hogs.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, June 16.—Hogs receipts 40,000; market active, mostly 30 cents higher than Saturday's average; top $21.60; bulk $21.25@$21.50; heavy weight $21.30&$21.50; medium weight $21.15@$21.60; light weight $21.00@$21.60; light lights $19.00@$2120; heavy packing sows, smooth $2075@$21.15; packing sows raugh $20.00@$20.75; pigs $18.00@$19.00.

Cattle receipts 14000; beef steers, medium and heavy weight, choice and good and choice 512.75@$14.75; common and medium $10.00@$13.00; butcher cattle, heifers $7.75@$12.85; cows $7.80@$12.65; canners and cutters $6@$7.50; veal calves, light and handy weights $16.00@$17.25; feeder steers $9.75@$18.00; stockers steers $8.25@12.25.

NAVY BILL PASSED.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, June 16.—With authorization for a new three-year building program eliminated and the fund for naval aviation reduced to $15,000,000, the 1920 naval appropriation bill was passed today by the house and sent to the senate. The measure carries approximately $600,000,000 and was passed virtually in the form it came from the naval committee.

No Police Court.

There was a clean slate in police court this morning in fact no court was held for there were no charges or prisoners. Mayor Atherton and police Chief Sheridan are thinking of taking a vacation or renting the court of justice at the city prison for some other purpose than that of holding court. Usually before the saloons were voted out there were half a dozen cases in court every Monday morning.

Goes After Bass.

Baltimore & Ohio Engineer James Campbell is spending a two weeks' vacation at Oakwood Lodge, Buckeye Lake. He took several kinds of rods, reels and flies with him and will try his luck again at tantalizing some of the big bass.

Parade and Decorations Committee.

There will be a meeting of the committee on parade and decorations for the welcome home celebration on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the mayor's office. All the members of this committee are asked to attend.

Auto Hits Bicycle.

Edgar Hyatt, employed as office boy at The Advocate was knocked from a bicycle at Fifth and Wilson streets and was slightly injured at noon today. He was struck by an automobile and the bicycle he was riding was damaged and he suffered a bruised leg.

Miniature Train Jumps Track.

One of the little cars on the miniature railroad at Buckeye Lake jumped the track yesterday and one of the cars went in the lake. A girl riding in the car received a ducking. Also, two women and a man were thrown in the lake from a rowboat as they were being towed to a dock. All were helped out with no damage except ruined outfits.

Will Open New Addition.

Dick Curry and Charles Gibson are placing a block of lots on the market which will make very desirable residence locations. They are located on Granville, Sixteenth street and Saratoga avenue. It is said that there are prospects of several new residences going up on these new lots. A big plat is being made of the lots and will be placed on exhibition in the Curry barber shop in West Main street.

Council Meeting.

There will be a regular meeting of city council this evening, but no business of special importance is scheduled to date. It was said that the telephone rate ordinance will be brought up but after the court decision today dissolving the temporary injunction against the collection of the advanced rate asked by the company it is not known whether the matter will be given an airing before the city dads.

"A Great Big Pipeful of H-M for Me"

Some men don't smoke a pipe much. Why? because they got started wrong. If a tobacco bites your tongue or maybe grates on your throat, there's no fun in it. You don't even enjoy all of one measly pipeful.

But get a good mild tasty tobacco in that pipe and—oh boy! Honeymoon is the brand—mild, mellow and not a bit of bite. It's packed away in casks for three years, and all the kick and sting are smoothed out. You'll fill up your biggest pipe with it and enjoy every puff—and then start all over again!

When those 3-year old casks are opened, only the best leaves of rich, ripe Burley are selected for Honey Moon. Then it is especially prepared to bring out the full flavor, and packed by high-class Union Labor. But try it today—10c and 15c (larger size) in your tobacco shop.

AUDITORIUM.

"The Marriage Ring."

Enid Bennett will be seen at the Auditorium theatre today in "The Marriage Ring," the scenes of which are partly laid in San Francisco but mainly in Hawaii. And they say it is the best ever, because the star's hubby directed it. Think of making your own wife do whatever you wish and being able to scold or fine her if she balks! Jack Holt is the leading man, too. That's another point in favor of the picture.

Anyway, we're all waiting to see Enid Bennett in a new play. You see, she has given us all a memory we won't soon efface, even if we try, the memory of a very sweet and demure little Antipodean girl who has in a very short time climbed clear up to the star class and twinkles there as effectively as any.

The story of "The Marriage Ring" opens with Anna Mertons, the role played by Miss Bennett, who is unhappily married to a brute who seeks to gain his own ends by any means at his command. In a struggle over a revolver the weapon is discharged and she leaves him for dead and goes to Hawaii where she learns to love Rodney Heathe, a sugar planter whom she had met on the steamship.

"The Family Skeleton."

Those who see Charles Ray in his latest picture "The Hired Man" will welcome the announcement that he is again to appear at the Auditorium theatre, this time in a photoplay differing widely from his former pictures, yet giving him even more opportunity to display his exceptional ability. This is "The Family Skeleton," a semi-farcial drama founded on the firm conviction of young Billy Bates, a millionaire, that he has inherited an irristible tendency to drink. It comes to the Auditorium Wednesday.

"Shark Monroe."

To play the star role and also direct the picture is a large order, but William S. Hart does both most excellently in "Shark Monroe," his latest Artcraft Picture to be produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, which will be shown at the Auditorium theatre Friday and Saturday. The stellar role is that of Shark Monroe, the captain of "The Gull," a sealing schooner, and the story tells how Shark comes to love a beautiful girl from the east, and how he follows her up the Great White Trail, in Alaska, where he rescues her from a "buzzard of the north," proves his courage and wins her love.

ALHAMBRA.

"The Fallen Idol."

Manager Fenberg has arranged a special program for his Alhambra theatre in which Evelyn Nesbit is the star. She is seen in "The Fallen Idol. The story given below:

Princess Laone is a young Hawaiian musical artist who becomes the protege of Mrs. Parrish, a wealthy society leader of Santa Barbara. She becomes a pronounced success through her colorful personality, and it isn't long before she casts a spell over Keith Parrish, the nephew of the society woman. Their love affair has progressed to the point where Mrs. Parrish deems it best to advise the girl that she comes from a different world. And Laone carries out the matron's suggestion to discourage Keith even though he has proposed marriage. When he absents him self for a few days, Stephen Brainard, a social parasite and a smuggler, entices Laone to accompany him to Hawaii on his yacht, pressing his argument that Parrish would never marry her since he comes from the Occident.

A comedy, 'Romance and Brass Tacks," also Current Events make up a really dandy program.

"Miss Adventure."

Peggy Hyland in a sea story—and an exciting sea story it is, according to report. Under the title of "Miss Adventure" it will be shown at the Alhambra theatre Wednesday and Thursday. The story is one that should give ample room for all the dainty and sprightly acting of which Miss Hyland is capable. The heroine's father is killed by a mutinous crew and she is adopted by an old sea captain. The pranks she plays as she grows up, and her unfailing good-nature, make her beloved by all in the fishing village where she lives. But a nephew of the captain, fearing she will get the captain's fortune, has her kidnapped, and soon Peggy finds herself on a deserted island.

"Day Dreams."

John Bowers, screen player of eminence, makes his first appearance as leading man in Goldwyn Pictures in Madge Kennedy's newest production, "Day Dreams," by Cosmo Hamilton, which comes to the Alhambra theatre, beginning Friday. Combining unusual experience with genuine gifts, the reason for John Bowers' success is not hard to find. He has appeared with almost every screen favorite and has built up for himself a following which could hardly be larger if he were a star himself. Youthful, earnest, typically American, John Bowers imposes on his admirers no hardships in becoming ac-

TO MY FRIENDS IN NEWARK
If you didn't see "Camping Out" yesterday at the Auditorium, you missed something, for it's my latest Paramount comedy, and, friends, it's a world beater.
Take it from me, it's the funniest comedy I've ever rollicked through and bubbles over with hilarity from start to finish.
I'm doing my best to make pictures that will draw the crowds and in "Camping Out," which is funny in idea, in situation, and in unexpected gags that will make even an old hard-boiled showman laugh.

Woman Who Has Taken Active Part In Women's War Work To Address Sunday School Convention.

Akron, June 16. That interest in Sunday school work has shown a tremendous increase all over the state is evidenced by the fact that the counties of the state have made an unprecedented record in paying their apportionments to the work of the Ohio. Secretary Arthur T. Arnold reports that at least 75 per cent of the 88 counties have already met their apportionment, and he would not be surprised if a standard of 100 per cent were reached before the convention of the association to be held here June 17, 18 and 19.

It is anticipated by officers of the organization that the 1500 Sunday school workers while in convention will ratify the Detroit agreement, making the Sunday school association the working organization of all denominations who sign the agreement. Dr. William E. Chalmers of the council of evangelical denomination will interpret this document to the convention.

Miss Margaret Slattery of Boston, lecturer and writer on subjects of secular and religious education and child welfare, will be one of the speakers at the meetings here. Since the war Miss Slattery has added to her usual program, work for the war council of the Y. W. C. A. and has addressed audiences of girls and women under the auspices of the Patriotic league, numbering from 3000 to 6000. The demand for Miss Slattery's services has grown so that she is obliged at present to make her engagements about two years in advance and her field extends throughout the United States and Canada.

WAS ADVISED TO USE NERV-WORTH BY TWO DOCTORS

Charles F. Johnson Makes Significant Signed Statement.

Mr. Johnson says that when advising himself and wife to take Nerv-Worth the doctors spoke of it as "fine medicine." Here is the story as given to the Columbus Nerv-Worth druggist not long ago:

The Mykrantz Co.—My wife and I have used Nerv-Worth with wonderfully beneficial results. She had been troubled for years with severe nervousness. Pains in the back of her neck. Stomach and digestion in bad shape. Restless at night and very much run down.

I had serious nervous trouble. Tossed about the bed all night long and worn out by morning and it was pulling me down in strength and something had to be done to get relief as it was effecting my eyesight. We both found it in Nerv-Worth, which put us in good shape and did it quick. It is a wonderful medicine and tonic and rid us of all our nervous troubles. We both eat and sleep well and enjoy good health. We recommend Nerv-Worth to all. It was recommended to us by two doctors.

INSISTS ON BIG ARMY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, June 16.—Secretary Baker, appearing today before the senate military committee, insisted that congress make provision for an army of 509,000 men until permanent military policy can be adopted. He declared the force of 300,000 proposed in the annual army appropriation bill as passed by the house was "inadequate."

Today.

The devastated country of Northern France, so filled with interest for Americans now, is shown to advantage in the new Paramount picture, "The Firefly of France," starring Wallace Reid with Ann Little, now on view at the Gem theatre.

Tomorrow.

Among screen stars in this country, Charles Ray has by his talents and hard work advanced to the front rank. Mr. Ray will be seen in "The Claws of the Hun," his latest Paramount picture, at the Gem theatre tomorrow.

GRAND.
Today.

Bessie Barriscale has a double role in "A Trick of Fate." In this picture she is called upon to portray two characters opposite in everything except personal appearance. As Mary Lee, a demure Southern girl, compelled by adverse circumstances to leave her aristocratic environment and adopt the musical-comedy stage, she is the personification of naive innocence. As "Mlle. Zura," a French danseuse and singer of risque songs in the "Cafe of the Black Rat" in Paris—violent in temper, capricious of temperament—she is the essence of naughty sophistication. This picture will have its final showing at the Grand this evening, in connection with the film "Never Again" in which Fatty Arbuckle is the star.

Tomorrow.

Harry T. Morey has a supporting cast of exceptional strength made up of Vitagraph favorites in his next picture, "Beating the Odds," which will be seen in the Grand theatre Tuesday.

"Beating the Odds" is adapted from "The Money Maker," a best seller, written by Irving R. Allen, a powerful expose of graft influences and workings in the underworld.

In addition will be shown Ethel Lynn and Jay Belasco in "For the Love of Money."
